The Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XXIII. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1869. NUMBER 76.

FOREIGN.

Colonial Reforms Proposed by the Spanish Government.

The Cuban Question.

Intervention by the United States Strongly Denounced.

Great Britain.

THE STORM SUBSIDES.

LONDON, Sept. 13.

The Daily News contains another letter from William Howitt, on the charge against Lord Byron. He says Lady Byron has condemned herself by the launch of an immoral slander. Byron's wrong was done Lord Byron by the Edinburgh Review, and the article containing his indictment, and a defense of the character of his wife, was suppressed at his request. [illegible]

THE FENIAN REVIVAL.

The Times, in an editorial to-day, commenting on the Fenian's release and publication of his speech, says the person of the sovereign is of secondary importance. If [illegible] is made [illegible] Queen Victoria, or Queen Victoria, on what terms does he hold office, and what authority does he command? The attention should be paid to the Queen's speech, and enjoying the confidence of a majority of the people.

THE WEATHER.

LONDON, Sept. 13.

Weather cloudy.

CHAMPIONS ARRIVED.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 13.

The Scotsmen, Pritchard, Cornish, and Kennedy have arrived.

[illegible]

MADRID, Sept. 13.

Commissioners have been named to consider the abolition of colonial code for the colonies, the emancipation reform, and the abolition of slavery in Porto Rico.

MADRID, Sept. 13.

The Imparcial insists on the necessity of a yearly contribution of the Cuban insurrectionists. A [illegible] of the contributions for Cuba have joined the Cuban Revolution. Other detachments will follow from Carthagena.

[illegible] OF POLITICAL PRISONERS.

Detachments are growing up between the Portuguese and Spanish parties.

[illegible] OF PEIN.

PARIS, Sept. 14.

General Prim has arrived here. The General, while at Vichy, had a conference with the Spanish Minister in Madrid last Friday. [illegible] the part of the commissioners received from Washington, and the offer of the co-operating for Cuba have joined the United States to interfere in the affairs of Cuba was demonstrated at the conference as an act of aggression on the part of Spain, and the hope was expressed that Spain would very energetically to the claims of the Republics of the American Continent.

PARIS, Sept. 14.

There is no authority for the report that Prim is to state what took place at the conference of General Prim and the Spanish Ambassador at Vichy. [illegible] Prim's health is improving, and the Spanish Government should remain their therefore.

France.

REPUTATION STORM.

PARIS, Sept. 13.

A tempest yesterday prostrated the telegraph wires, and communication in every direction was temporarily interrupted.

[illegible] GARFIELD'S HEALTH is better to-day. It is asserted that the process will set out again on her voyage to the Spitzbergen.

SPRINGFIELD.

Circular Letter to County Clerks—An Error Corrected—The Steinbeldt Celebration—County Assessment.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 13.

The following circular, which has been sent to the several County Clerks, will explain itself:

STATE OF ILLINOIS, [illegible]

[illegible] Sept. 13, 1869.

[illegible] Sir: [illegible] the Treasurer of the [illegible] County, [illegible] to the Treasurer of State, [illegible] the Treasurer of State, [illegible] the Treasurer of State, [illegible]

The Tribune.

THE GREAT GALE.

Additional Particulars.

Immense Damage.

From the Boston Journal, Sept. 15.

We continue to hear from all quarters to the city of Washington of the great damage done by the gale of Wednesday of last week. We give below a few additional particulars of the damage done at a distance, which we have received since our last issue.

IN THE CITY.

The building of a building on Congress street, Boston, was blown down, and the roof of the house next door to it was stove in. The roof of Hubbard & Hobart's stove factory, on Washington street, was also blown off.

The chimneys were blown off the block of houses on the southerly side of Harvard Row, Cambridge, and the roofs of the houses were stove in by the falling brick. A chimney was blown down on Harvard street, near Cambridge street, and fell through the roof of a house in the rear, and a wagon was crushed by the falling brick. The roof of a house on Cambridge, near the Brighton line, was blown over, but fell back into place. The roof of a house on Tremont row was blown off.

The roof of the Bowdoin Square Church and all of the corner of Bowdoin street and Harrison avenue, including the tower, was blown off. The roof of the building occupied by Ladd & Whitney, corner of Washington and Bowdoin streets, was blown off.

The roof of the building occupied by Ladd & Whitney, on Washington street, was blown off.

In this town the chimney of the house of Mr. Smith, near the corner of Hancock street, was blown down, and the roof of the house was stove in. The roof of the house of Thomas Wilson, on Hancock street, was blown off, and the chimney belonging to the roof was broken. The roof of the large carriage house belonging to Mr. Lane, and others. The steeple of the Congregational Church was blown over about 11 o'clock in the night. The Harrison House, on Hancock street, was much injured. Letter to the people on board of her. There is a report that the roof of the Tremont House was blown off and the wind blew with partial force for an hour and a half.

The roof of the building belonging to Mr. Nathan Hunt, on Washington street, was blown off, and the roof of the building adjoining was much injured. The roof of the building occupied by Mr. Hollis, on Washington street, was blown off, and the roof of the building occupied by Mr. Hollis, on Washington street, was blown off.

The

THE COAL MINE DISASTER.

Horrible Stories Told—The Slaughter Said to Have Been the Result of Jealousy Between the Giants.

(Sept. 16) Correspondent of the Tri-

FLOODS IN WESTERN NEW YORK

Damage to Property.

From the Rochester Express, Sept. 19.

THE INTERNATIONAL BOAT-RACE.

Tom Brown" Thinks Shoots

London (August 30) Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

Why They Go Backward.

THE COURTS OF LAW AND EQUITY.

THE PRIZE COURTS.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

MONDAY EVENING, Sept. 23.

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY EVENING, Sept. 23.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE

Port of Chicago.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

CHICAGO LUMBER MARKET.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CHICAGO DAILY MARKET.

MEDICAL CARDS.

Private Matters.

Private Matters.

Dr. Townsend.

Your Destiny

PROPOSALS.

Proposals for Subsistence Stores.

ASSESSMENT NOTICES.

Assessment Notice.

Assessment Notice.

CARPETS AND OIL CLOTHS.

GLEN ECHO MILLS,
GERMANTOWN, Pa.
McCallum, Crease & Sloan,
Manufacturers, Importers and Wholesale Dealers in Carpetings,
OIL CLOTHS, MATTINGS, &c.
We invite the attention of the trade to our extensive stocks, as well as a large assortment of Foreign goods.
WAREHOUSE
No. 509 Chestnut-st.,
Opposite the Girard House,
PHILADELPHIA.

EDUCATIONAL.

TROY FEMALE SEMINARY.

PARKER INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES' SEMINARY.

COTTAGE HILL SEMINARY

OCEAN STEAMERS.

PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP CO.'S
Through Line to California and China.

REDUCED RATES.
London and New York Steamship Line.

MACHINERY.

PORTABLE STEAM ENGINES.

MALT.
Wyeth & Vandervoort Malting Co.,

BANKERS.

MUNROE & CO.,
AMERICAN BANKERS,

G. C. PARKS & CO.,
Bankers and Brokers,
No. 28 Broad and 24 New-st.,
NEW YORK.

PUBLIC HOUSES.

THE CITY HOTEL

SCALES.
FAIRBANKS' STANDARD SCALES.

MEDICAL.

DYSPEPSIA!

GOVERNMENT SALES.

NOTICE.

WINDOW PULLEYS.

RAILROADS.

Arrival and Departure of Trains
SUMMER ARRANGEMENTS

BOARD OF TRADE.

Meeting to Consider the Goodyear-Lester Case.

The Decision of the Board of Directors Sustained.

Committee Report.

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the Chamber of Commerce last evening, for the purpose of hearing the report of the Board of Directors in the Goodyear and Kimball case. The attendance of members was very large. The President, E. S. Sanford, occupied the chair.

Mr. Sanford stated if Mr. Goodyear was present, and had any remarks to make, Mr. Ramsey moved that he be requested to address the meeting.

The President said Mr. Goodyear had been officially notified of the hour of five days ago that the meeting would be held.

The Secretary then read a history of the case, which has been published in THE TRIBUNE, but as the points of it are in the report of the Directors, we give their report in full. It is as follows:

CHICAGO, Sept. 13, 1869.

[illegible] W. B. Walker, who [illegible] Board of Trade, [illegible] Lester, [illegible] Goodyear, [illegible] Kimball, [illegible] Board of Trade, [illegible] Board of Trade, [illegible] Board of Trade